

1) Precaution regarding U.S. Export Administration Regulations (7/Oct, 21/Oct., 2022)

1. Our products may be subject to the Foreign-Direct Product rules (FDPR) under U.S. Export Administration Regulations (EAR) (※Note:1), and any export, re-export or transfer (in-country) of these products or of secondary products incorporating them may require you to apply a license from Bureau of Industry and Security in the U.S. when the transaction falls within the scope of a regulated end-use or end-user.

2. In case of your non-compliance of EAR or other applicable export control regulations without any legal ground or in case we are required by EAR or other applicable export control regulations, we, through ourselves or our distributors, agents, etc., may immediately, without any liability, compensation or other penalties (i) terminate any and all sales agreements with you, (ii) cancel any and all purchase order and other transactions with you, and/or (iii) cancel any and all supplies to you.

Please understand, however, that the information on this website is not intended to constitute legal advice and you should rely upon your own interpretation of export compliance obligations and/or consult with international trade experts in furtherance of adhering to China, U.S. or other relevant foreign government laws applicable to your business.

For details, please refer to the following the recent update of EAR.

(※Note:1) § 734.9

<https://www.bis.doc.gov/index.php/documents/regulations-docs/2382-part-734-scope-of-the-export-administration-regulations-1/file>